2026 TRAIL GUIDE

EXPLORE OVER 90 MILES OF
BLOOMING DOGWOOD TRAILS
& OPEN GARDENS

A Knoxville tradition since 1955, the Historic Dogwood Trails cover more than 90 miles in 13 neighborhoods across the city. Take a drive, walk, or bike ride and enjoy the natural beauty of our region!

PROMOTING & CELEBRATING
ART, CULTURE, AND NATURAL
BEAUTY SINCE 1955

HOW IT STARTED

In 1947, reporter John Gunther visited and famously labeled Knoxville the ‘Ugliest City in America,’ sparking local outrage. Determined to prove him wrong, Betsey Creekmore and Martha Ashe led a civic effort in 1955 to create a scenic blooming trail that would showcase the beauty of the city they loved so much. Thus, the seeds of the very first Dogwood Trail were planted.

DOGWOOD ARTS TRAILS & GARDENS

Knoxville’s Historic Dogwood Trails are open annually from April 1-30th, just in time to showcase the beauty of spring in East Tennessee! Use the addresses found in this guide to locate each Trailhead and follow the pink lines from there. While you visit, be on the lookout for homes with Open Garden and Camera Site yard signs.

 Open Garden: get out and enjoy a stroll through the garden

 Camera Site: photos only, please do not enter the property

 Hikes & Blooms: visit dogwoodarts.com/events for guided wildflower hikes in this area this spring!

Open 10AM - 6PM daily unless posted otherwise

Trails & Gardens Chair: Gina Bond
Featured Gardens Chair: Jessyca Williams

Thank you to the individual agents at Realty Executives Associates for sponsoring all 13 Dogwood Trails!
